

Section 4 in-class exercise

Task: Design a table structure that can handle tracking patient appointments in a multi-doctor clinic. No need to worry about all the attributes needed for each individual table, just determine what tables are needed and how they are related.